

Availability of Coursework to Students

A student has the right to have all written materials that are submitted to meet the requirements of a course returned or made available for review. To be “made available” does not ensure the right to a photocopy, but the materials may be examined in the office of the faculty member or the academic department. Written materials that are not returned to the student must be retained by the faculty member or the department for at least one year following the completion of the course.
