

IRG - International Relations and Global Studies

International Relations and Global Studies: IRG

Lower-Division Courses

IRG 301. Introduction to International Relations and Global Studies.

Restricted to international relations and global studies majors. Three lecture hours a week for one semester. Prerequisite: Completion of at least twenty-four semester hours of college coursework.

Upper-Division Courses

IRG 320F. Foundations of International Relations and Global Studies.

Restricted to international relations and global studies majors. Survey of contemporary debates related to international relations and global studies. The equivalent of three lecture hours a week for one semester. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing and International Relations and Global Studies 301.

IRG 378. Capstone Research in International Relations and Global Studies.

Restricted to international relations and global studies majors. Three lecture hours a week for one semester. Prerequisite: International Relations and Global Studies 301 and 320F, and a minimum of 75 hours of coursework.

IRG 678H. Honors Tutorial Course.

Supervised individual research on an international relations and global studies topic. The equivalent of three lecture hours a week for two semesters. Prerequisite: For 678HA, upper-division standing, International Relations and Global Studies 301 with a grade of at least B, and admission to the International Relations and Global Studies Honors Program; for 678HB, International Relations and Global Studies 678HA.

Graduate Courses

Professional Courses