Fees for Nonstudents

Auditor's fee

A fee of $20 a course is required of individuals not registered at the University who wish to audit one or more courses. In accordance with section 54.210 of the Texas Education Code, a person 65 years of age or older may audit a course without paying the fee if space is available. More information about auditing a course is given in Auditing a Course.

Library card fee for non-University borrowers

Libraries are open to the public for use of materials. Adult Texas residents who are not members of the University community may borrow materials for home use by purchasing a courtesy borrower card at the Courtesy Borrower Services Desk at the Perry-Castañeda Library, entrance level. A photo ID and proof of Texas residence are required at the time of purchase. The fee may be waived for current members of the Texas Exes, for users who present valid TexShare cards from libraries participating in the TexShare Card Program, and for other users included in reciprocal borrowing agreements in which the University Libraries participates. More information on fees and waivers is published by the University Libraries. Card expiration dates are determined by the period of enrollment, membership, or appointment.

The Big Ticket guest pass for football season option

Guest season tickets for football are currently not available. More information is available on the Texas Longhorn Athletics website.
