

Great Books, Great Books Honors (BA)

This program provides a unique and challenging interdisciplinary program of study for a limited number of students whose academic records indicate strong potential and motivation. Students encounter the deepest sources of Western civilization in biblical religion and Greek philosophy and then renew their engagement with these sources through the works of the philosophers, authors, and artists who have wrestled with the enduring themes of human life. The program cultivates students' capacity for wisdom-seeking and prepares them to respond to recurrent change in a variety of vocations by anchoring them in an understanding of these permanent questions and deepest truths. The program partners well with numerous specialized disciplines and professional trajectories by strengthening the habits of mind and heart required for the ongoing need to integrate deep thoughtfulness with specialized learning.

Admission

Application materials and information about deadlines are available online at <https://admissions.utexas.edu/apply>.

First-year applicants and external transfer students submit an application for admission to the program's honors concentration. Students wishing to pursue the program as a simultaneous major may apply to either the honors or non-honors concentration by internal transfer.

Total Hours Required: 120

Plan of Study

The Plan of Study is a suggested four-year course sequence to support academic planning and serves as a helpful guide. Currently enrolled students should meet with their academic advisor to tailor their course selections and timelines to their individual goals and circumstances.
