

Interior Design Minor

The Interior Design Minor is designed to provide a foundation in interior design and architecture concepts for students outside of the School of Architecture. Any undergraduate outside of the School of Architecture with a University grade point average of at least 2.50 may take any course listed below, whether pursuing the Interior Design Minor or not. Students may obtain only one minor from the School of Architecture. Please see the Course Schedule to determine if instructor permission is required.

Students who know they intend to complete the Interior Design minor should apply online at the earliest possible date; deadlines are March 1 for fall or summer, and October 1 for spring.

Total Hours Required: 15

Additional Requirements and Policy

- In addition to the above courses, former interior design majors may use other interior design and architecture courses completed while in the School of Architecture toward their coursework for the Interior Design Minor. Unnumbered interior design or architecture topics courses (ARI 350R or ARC 350R) completed prior to Fall 2016 also may count.
- At least half of the coursework must be completed in residence.
- All coursework must be taken on the letter-grade basis, and completed in conjunction with the students' major requirements.
- Registration for upper-division courses will require successful completion of 60 semester hours of coursework. Six hours must be upper-division.
